Croydon LA One Day Primary Numeracy Conference

Making Mathematics Accessible
How to enable Primary pupils of all abilities to achieve in Numeracy

Key note speakers

• BEVERLEY WILLIAMS Head of Professional Training at the Helen Arkell Dyslexia Centre
  Helen has presented workshops at conferences across the country and supported learners with SpLD at all levels as well as helped to design the current course for Primary classroom assistants at Level 3. She will be presenting on: ‘How Dyslexia and other SpLDs impact upon Mathematical abilities’ as well as ‘Dyscalculia’.

• SUE GIFFORD Principal Lecturer - Mathematics at Roehampton University
  Sue’s research has focused largely on Early Childhood Mathematics, Dyscalculia and children with Mathematics difficulties. She will be presenting on ‘Numeracy Difficulties in the EYFS and how to support them’.

Workshops topics

• ASSESSING MATHEMATICS NEEDS
• SUPPORTING PUPILS WITH MATHEMATICS DIFFICULTIES
• SUCCESSFUL INTERVENTIONS:
  - NUMICON
  - CATCH UP NUMERACY
• EARLY SUPPORT IN MATHEMATICS (EYFS)

Friday 27 September 2013
9:00 am – 3:30 pm
8th Floor, Leon House, Croydon

See next week’s bulletin for more information on what will be covered in the workshops, EARLY BIRD OFFERS and details of how to book!