'Where happy children love to learn'

The success of your child's education hinges on the quality of the partnership between you and the school. We hope you will form the partnership.

The School will:-

1. Teach your child, catering for your child's individual educational needs and abilities within the group structure.
2. Ensure that your child is taught a broad and balanced curriculum, offering each area of the EYFS/National Curriculum.
3. Undertake the teaching of Literacy and Numeracy as the main focus throughout your child's time at school. Assess the level of Literacy and Numeracy at entry to the school and to make continuous observations and assessment of your child's progress throughout school.
4. Observe and keep formative records of your child's learning in order to plan appropriately for their next stage of development.
5. Have termly parent consultations to discuss your child's individual needs and progress.
6. Write and share a yearly report written about the progress and stage of development of your child.
7. Inform you of any problem with regard to behaviour or learning in accordance with the Behaviour Policy.
8. Inform you of any problem with regard to attendance in accordance with the Attendance Policy.
8. Keep your child safe at all times
9. Liaise with new year groups and key stages to ensure a smooth transition for each child.
10. Promote mutual respect.

Parents/carers will:-

1. Support their child, study at home and at school by praising success and supporting any difficulties they may have.
2. Meet with the class teacher to discuss the best way to develop their child's learning.
3. Participate fully in the school's Home Learning programme.
4. Take part in any strategy meeting that may be called if their child is experiencing learning, socialising or attendance problems.
5. Support the school by following the school Behaviour Policy .
6. Assume responsibilities for their child during school time if contacted for any reason.
7. Ensure their child arrives punctually and attends school regularly and is not unnecessarily absent. They will also ensure their child is collected on time at the end of the day. (Attendance Policy)
8. Encourage their child to go to bed at a reasonable time during the school week.
9. Immediately inform the school of any worries they may have about their child's learning so that we can work together to improve the quality of the child's experience.
10. Promote mutual respect.
